EIGHTH BIENNIAL SESSION

Phonographically reported for the Oregonian

Senate—Morning Session.

SALEM, October [illegible] 1874.

Reading of the journal of yesterday was dispensed with.

On motion, the Committee on Enrolled Bills were authorized to employ all the clerical aid necessary to enroll bills as fast as they may come to them.

On motion of Mr TOWNSEND, H. B. [illegible], the bill providing for the registration of voters, was taken up and read first time by title.

Mr VAN CLEAVE moved that the rules be suspended and the bill read second time now. The motion prevailed and the bill was read second time.

Mr BRISTOW moved to amend the bill by excepting Lane county from the operation of the law.

The amendment was amended by exempting Coos, Curry, Wasco, Douglas, Jackson, Grant, [illegible], Clackamas and Union, all of which amendments were accepted by the original mover.

After some discussion by Messrs DOLPH and others, the motion to amend was withdrawn.

Mr JEWELL then moved that the further consideration of the bill be indefinitely postponed. The motion prevailed.

The PRESIDENT announced that he had signed H. B. 25, 74 and S. B. 34, 64, 60, 68, 31, 108, 55, 57, 87, 92.

Mr MYERS moved that the vote by which the Registry bill was postponed be reconsidered.

Mr GOODMAN moved to indefinitely postpone the motion to reconsider.

Pending the motion, the hour set apart for the consideration of the State Capitol appropriation bill arrived.

The committee to whom the bill was referred reported the same back and recommended its passage.

The amendments were adopted and the bill was read third time.

Mr BRISTOW said that of course it would be claimed that voting against this bill was voting to throw away what money had been already expended, yet when we see the great four upon which the building has been begun and consider the amount of money that it will yet take to complete the building, I believe that it would be true economy to tear down what has been done and begin again on a building of reasonable dimensions. I think a building that would cost not more than $24,000 would be sufficiently commodious to accommodate for a long time to come, and I have no idea that this building can be finished for less than a million. For these reasons I shall vote against the bill.

Mr RICHARDSON—I do not wish to occupy the time of the Senate, as I know it is getting to be too precious, but I cannot allow the remarks of the gentleman from Lane to go unanswered. I hold in my hand a proposition from gentlemen proposing to put up the walls of the building, cover it and finish up rooms sufficient for the occupancy of all the State officers, and will accommodate both Houses of the next Legislature, for the sum of $110,000, and they also offer to give ample bonds to secure the performance of their contract. To say that it is going to cost a million dollars to finish the building when so much has already been done, and when gentlemen are willing to bind themselves to carry out this proposition, seems to me to be perfectly preposterous. It seems to me the only question is, shall we throw away all that has been done, or shall we make this appropriation, which is not large, and have a building which will accommodate the State, and thereby at least save the large amount that we are now paying for rent, which will almost pay the interest on the amount asked for.

Mr CRYSTAL—I do not often trouble the Senate with speeches, as you will all bear me out in that assertion. Having been here two years ago, I distinctly remember the promises that were made concerning this matter then. They said then that if that appropriation of one hundred thousand dollars would be made, that together with the convict labor they could have a building ready for the occupancy of this Legislature that would be ample for all purposes and would be an honor to the State. That money has been expended, and now I am satisfied that we are actually farther from having a State Capitol than we were then. The same argument will be used again in two years from now, that it will not do to lose all that has been done, and so it will be for the next ten years. [He] said that it seemed to be the intention of gentlemen to aggrandize the town of Salem at the expense of the rest of the State, and I shall take some pleasure in keeping myself clear of this matter.

Mr HIRSCH moved the previous question, which was lost.

After some further arguments by Messrs Bristow, Richardson and Hirsch, Mr BRISTOW moved a call of the House, which motion was lost.

The vote on the passage of the bill was then taken with the following result: Yeas 23, nays 5. Those voting no were Messrs Bristow, Crystal, Jewell, Lee, Witham.

Absent—Barnes and Cochran.

THE PENITENTIARY.

The hour set apart for the consideration of S. B. 111 (the Penitentiary bill) having arrived, the bill was read third time.

Mr DOLPH called for the reading of the report of the committee appointed to examine the books and papers of the Superintendent of the Penitentiary, and also the report of the clerk of said committee. The report of the committee was read.

Mr TOWNSEND objected to the reading of the report of the clerk of the committee.

Mr DOLPH said that it would take but a short time to read the report, that it was important and had been agreed to be part of the committee, and he desired it read for the information of the Senate.

Mr TOWNSEND moved that the reading be dispensed with.

Mr MYERS said he hoped the motion would prevail, that the report only contained some unwarranted charges against an official, and the gentleman might as well call for the reading of any newspaper report or any other paper as the report of this clerk, who has never been authorized to report anything to this Senate.

The vote on dispensing with the reading stood:

Yeas—Braley, Clark, Haley, Herren, Munkers, Myers, Richardson, Savage, Tolin, Townsend, Van Cleave, Wisdom—12.

So the motion was lost, and the reading was proceeded with until 12 o'clock, when the Senate took a recess until 1 o'clock.

Afternoon Session.

There being no quorum present, the President directed the Sergeant at Arms to bring in absent members.

Several members having come in, a call of the House was ordered, and the Sergeant at Arms was again directed to bring in absent members.

Two motions to dispense with further reading of the report of the Clerk of the Penitentiary Committee were lost.

The Clerk proceeded with reading the report, but had not finished the same when Mr OWENS moved to indefinitely postpone the whole subject.

A call of the House was demanded and agreed to by a vote of 16 to 11. Richardson and Watson were reported absent, and the Sergeant at Arms was ordered to bring them in.

Mr TOWNSEND moved to dispense with the further call, which passed by 15 to 12.

The question recurred on the motion to indefinitely postpone, which was carried by the following vote:

Mr CLARK changed from no to aye before the vote was announced, and thus secured the passage of the motion.

Absent—Richardson and Watson.

So the whole subject was indefinitely postponed.

The CHAIR announced that there was a motion pending to indefinitely postpone the motion to reconsider the vote by which the registry bill was indefinitely postponed. The motion was lost, and the question recurring on the motion to reconsider, the motion prevailed, and the bill was amended in various unimportant particulars.

Mr JEWELL moved to amend the bill by making the bill apply only to Multnomah county.

Mr HANNA moved the further consideration of the bill be indefinitely postponed.

Mr VAN CLEAVE—I hope this motion will not prevail. It strikes me that this bill is one of such great importance that it ought not to meet with the opposition it does in this House. It seems to me that this is the only way in which we can provide for fair elections in any part of the State. It is not a political matter, and does not favor any party nor work against any party. Neither is it a local matter, and does not favor any particular locality in any way. The provisions of the act apply equally to all parts of the State, and unless it does do that, I do not think that it would be constitutional, and it would be a nullity on [the] statute [books]. I do not see how elections are to be conducted fairly without such a law, and I do hope that the bill may be passed in some shape. In reference to efforts that are being made to make the law apply only to particular localities, we cannot do that. It would be unconstitutional, and we must make the law general or not pass it at all if we wish it to have any force. The only question is, shall we incur the trifling expense which this law will occasion and have the ballot guarded, or shall we leave the matter open to all sorts of fraud?

Mr WEBSTER also spoke briefly in favor of postponement; said that he disagreed with Mr Van Cleave in reference to the law being unconstitutional unless it was made general, and that he had voted against postponement this forenoon, but after further consideration had concluded to favor it, on the ground that the law was only needed in one or two counties, and did not think it right to entail this expense on small counties who could ill afford it, and where there was no occasion for the law.

Mr HALEY said that he had not favored the law for the reason that he had been here as a member [illegible] had a bill of this kind [illegible] the bill we killed [illegible] [illegible] prevail.

Mr DOLPH [agreed] with the gentleman from Multnomah, Mr Van Cleave. [illegible] much importance, perhaps more than any bill that has been before the Senate during this session. I do not think that the law as it now stands [can] be made to have a local application. Section [illegible] of the Constitution provides that the Legislative Assembly shall not pass local or special laws in any of the following enumerated cases, among which is providing for the opening and conducting of elections of State, county or township officers, etc. I am clearly of the opinion that this law will come within the prohibition. [illegible] of the counties are exempted. How are we in Portland to tell whether a person [illegible] Unless the law is made general it will certainly be unconstitutional, and it will be [illegible]

Yeas—Barnes, Braley, Clark, Goodman, Haley, Hanna, Herren, Jewell, Munkers, Offield, Savage, Tolin, Webster, Witham, Mr President—[illegible]

Absent—Hirsch, Watson, Wisdom, Cochran—[illegible]

A message from the House announced that the Speaker had signed H. B. 13 and [illegible] 23.

The PRESIDENT announced that he had signed the same.

On motion of Mr VAN CLEAVE, H. B. 101—in reference to mechanics' liens—was taken up and read first time by title. Under further suspension of the rules the bill was read second and third times and failed to pass. Yeas [illegible], noes 10.

Mr BRISTOW objected on the ground that the gentleman was not within the bar when the vote was taken.

Mr BARNES moved a reconsideration of the vote by which the bill was lost.

The motion prevailed, and a second vote on the passage of the bill resulted:

Yeas—Clark, Crystal, Dolph, Fogle, Haley, Hanna, Hirsch, Lee, Myers, Offield, Owens, Smith, Townsend, Van Cleave, Watson, Wisdom, Mr President—17.

So the bill passed.

On motion of Mr OWENS, H. B. 46 was taken up and read first time. Under suspension of the rules the bill was read second and third times and passed.

Mr WEBSTER moved that the rules be suspended and the resolution be taken up and acted upon now.

The motion prevailed. The resolution was amended by striking out the word "[illegible]," the number of years that the resolution provided the convicts should be leased for, and inserting "[illegible]."

On motion of Mr HIRSCH the bill was further amended by requiring all bids for leasing the labor to be opened in the presence of the Governor, Secretary of State and of all bidders, and that the contract be let to the highest responsible bidder, and that all money received for labor or materials sold shall be paid into the Treasury.

The resolution as amended was adopted.

Mr HIRSCH arose and made the following remarks: Before voting on this memorial I wish to say a few words to the Senate. I am heartily in favor of the memorial, but as a wrong impression has prevailed in relation to my course on the Winnemucca railroad bill, to which the memorial is supplementary, I hope to be granted a moment's time for explanation. It has always been known to the friends of the bill that I favored it, but only asked that this amendment be annexed to section 12: "Provided, that in no case shall the State be held responsible to the company or the bondholders for the conduct of its officers under this act." It was well known to the friends of the bill that I was anxious to secure that amendment and anxious to vote for the bill so amended, and one gentleman in particular whom I see in the lobby was well aware of my position, and after a full explanation from me agreed that I was correct in my position, and yet the impression was allowed to go abroad that I was opposed to the bill. The bill was made the special order for a certain day last week. The time was allowed to pass by the friends of the bill, and on the next day, when I was unable to be present, the friends of the bill called it up, and there was then no opportunity left for me to explain my position on that question. I take this method to make the explanation.

The memorial was adopted.

On motion of Mr GILBERT the rules were suspended and the bill read third time.

Messrs DRAIN, STOTT and JOHNSON spoke against the bill, while Mr PARTLOW favored it.

On the question, shall the bill pass, the vote stood yeas [illegible], against [illegible]. The bill not having received a majority of all members of the House failed to pass.

S. B. 85—to provide for the loaning out of moneys in the escheat fund—went through its various readings and was passed without amendment or dissent.

S. B. 67, for the incorporation of McMinnville, was also passed.

Mr DUFUR obtained unanimous consent to introduce a bill to provide for the proper exhibition of the industrial resources of the State of Oregon at the Centennial Exhibition, but a motion to suspend the rules and put the bill on second reading by title failed to obtain a constitutional majority.

[illegible] FOR A LONG PARLIAMENT.

Mr STEEN introduced and moved the adoption of the following joint resolution:

Resolved by the House, the Senate concurring, That the forty days of the present and all future sessions of the Legislature of the State of Oregon shall not include the Sundays that occur, but be continued to week days, and that this session shall end on Thursday, October 29, 1874.

Mr CHAMBERS thought this was a resolution which ought to be adopted. It was well known that forty days including Sundays was too short a time for the business they had to transact, and as the Constitution did not specify Sundays, he submitted that the benefit of any doubt which there might be on the subject ought to be given to the State. The passage of such a resolution might not have the force of law with future Legislatures, but it would have the force of example, and the practice would doubtless be followed.

Mr STEEN said it was a resolution which ought to commend itself to a Legislature confessedly pledged to retrenchment and reform. This Legislature cost the State $[illegible] to $320, and if the four Sundays were charged for they would be charging $[illegible] more than in his opinion ought to be charged. He was aware there was a difference of opinion as to whether Sundays should be included, but the adoption of this resolution would set the matter at rest. He knew that if he hired a man and he did not work on Sundays he was not paid for Sundays, and on the same principle he would not pay legislators for Sunday work if they did not work on that day.

Mr DAVIS said that if the Legislature set a precedent of this nature it would be impossible to get the Constitution amended so that the Legislative session might be extended. If they got the people to imagine that their representatives were willing to work 40 days for 40 days pay, the Constitution would never be amended.

Mr DEAN wanted to know if the State would pay the Sunday board of members if it would not give [per diem for] Sundays.

Mr JOHNSON said that the House would have sore trouble if it attempted at this late day to make up the time it had wasted. As to the Sunday question, he presumed there was no member on that floor who had not spent the day revolving in his mind the questions that were to engage attention during the week. They had spent forty days in the [illegible] of Salem, and he was bound for home. Another thing he might state, and it was a matter on which he had been well posted, that if they did not adjourn pretty soon the House would bust up. [Laughter.]

Mr [illegible]RIN did not think they could interpret the Constitution by virtue of a joint resolution. The Constitution either meant to include Sundays or it did not, but this resolution could not settle the matter. It could have no effect on subsequent Legislatures, and would only tend to make the present one more ridiculous than was at all necessary.

Mr [illegible] [referred] to the fact that previous Legislatures had extended the time beyond forty days. [illegible] it could be done [illegible] much important business which could not be acted upon if the Legislature dissolved this evening.

Mr SHELTON—[illegible] rather unfair for Mr Steen to request us to [stay] here when he has got his wife in Salem and our wives are at home. [Much laughter.]

The resolution was lost by a vote of [illegible] to [illegible].

Mr BROWN moved that the House concur in the Senate joint resolution for an adjournment sine die at 10 o'clock this evening.

Motions were made to amend by fixing 10 o'clock to-morrow evening, 1 o'clock to-morrow afternoon and 10 o'clock next Thursday evening, all of which were voted down in their order.

Mr GALLOWAY then moved to amend by fixing the time at 12 noon to-morrow, which prevailed, and the motion as amended was adopted by a vote of 35 to [illegible].

PER DIEM OF OFFICERS.

Mr WRIGHT of Union, from the special joint committee, made the following report as to the compensation of officers: Chief Clerks $8 per day, Assistant Clerks $6, Engrossing and Enrolling Clerks $[illegible], Sergeants at Arms $5, Doorkeepers $4, and Pages $3. It was recommended that the Chief Clerks and Assistants be allowed five days extra time in which to finish up the business of the session.

The report was adopted after amendments fixing the per diem of Sergeant at Arms at $[illegible] and Engrossing and Enrolling Clerks at $[illegible].

The House concurred in the Senate amendments to the Mechanics Lien Bill.

S. B. [illegible]—amending the private incorporation laws of the State—was, after two readings, referred with privilege to report at any time to a special committee of three—Wright of Union, Steen and Gilbert.

Mr GALLOWAY handed in the report of the Joint Committee on Retrenchment and Reform on the labor and remuneration of State officers.

An order was made that the report go on the journal without reading. It is the same as that introduced in the Senate some days ago and already published in full in the Portland papers.

House then adjourned till 7 P. M.

Evening Session.

The House resumed at the appointed hour.

Mr McCLUNG moved to suspend the rules and take up S. B. [illegible]—to give power to levy a tax in Lane county for the benefit of the State University, now in course of construction at Eugene City. The motion was strongly opposed by Mr MATLOCK, who said that all the representatives from Lane county, with the exception of Mr McClung, were against the bill.

Mr McCLUNG assured the House that a large majority of the citizens of Lane were desirous for the passage of this bill, and it was of great importance to them that it should go through.

A motion by Mr NOYER to indefinitely postpone the motion to reconsider was voted down, and the original motion failed for lack of a constitutional majority.

A message from the Senate intimated the refusal [of] that body to concur in the House amendment to the S. J. R. fixing the time of adjournment of both Houses.

Mr FIDLER moved that the House do not recede from its amendment. Lost by 14 to 32.

Mr STOTT thereupon introduced a joint resolution for a committee of three members from each House to confer together and arrange the time of adjournment.

The resolution was adopted and the Speaker appointed as the House Committee Gilbert, Stott and Van Ripen. This is the first committee of conference appointed during the session.

S. B. 19—To amend the act providing a code of civil procedure, went through the usual readings under suspension of the rules and passed.

On motion of Mr STANNARD the House concurred in the S. J. R. providing for the leasing of convict labor.

On motion of Mr FLORENCE the House reconsidered the vote by which S. B. 26—relating to assessors—failed to pass, and then passed the bill by a vote of 33 to 23.

On motion of Mr RIDDLE a joint resolution was adopted authorizing the Secretary of State to employ a janitor at a salary not to exceed $600 per annum, and that he be allowed no more than that sum for such work.

Mr WRIGHT of Union, from Special Committee, presented a report signed by himself and Mr Steen favoring the passage with amendments of S. B. 96, relating to incorporations.

The amendments were important. One gave the right to a majority of stockholders in a company to live abroad, and another provided that railroad companies shall have the right of way over each other's lines in narrow gorges.

Mr GILBERT presented a minority report recommending the passage of the bill without amendment.

Mr STEARNS moved to indefinitely postpone. Lost.

The majority report was adopted, the rules were suspended and the bill put on its final passage. It passed by a vote of 38 to 14.

A motion to reconsider the vote by which the amendments were adopted having been previously voted down.

Mr RIDDLE, from the special committee, presented a satisfactory report on the accounts of the late State Treasurer.

Mr GILBERT, from the Joint Committee on Conference, reported that said committee had agreed to recommend to both Houses that they adjourn at 2 o'clock A. M. on Saturday, October 24th.

Mr NOYER moved to adopt the report, which prevailed.

Mr PARTLOW—I now move that the Sergeant at Arms be instructed to prepare a bowl of coffee for each member. [Much laughter.]

The proposition of the gentleman from Washington appeared to be regarded as unconstitutional. It fell to the ground without a seconder.

The House refused to concur in the Senate amendment to the H. J. R. 61, providing for State offices at a rent of $1,500, the vote standing 19 to 34.

At 9 P. M. a motion was made to take a recess for half an hour, but it was promptly voted down, and the House proceeded to lighten its legislative burdens in a listless serio-comic way. Several attempts were made to suspend the rules and take up pet bills, and now and again a really important bill, but without success, the members being at sixes and sevens.

An effort was made to rouse the ghost of Gilbert Reynold, the Grant county contestant, by making his petition a special order for 1 A. M.

The SPEAKER remarked that the document in question was beyond the reach of the House, it having been indefinitely postponed, whereupon a sepulchral voice from the extreme end of the hall responded, "Thank the Lord!"

S. B. 86, granting the right of entrance into Oregon to the Northern Pacific Railroad Company, was then taken up, put through the usual readings and passed by 46 to 3.

On motion of Mr RIDDLE, the Secretary of State was instructed to send to each member by mail or otherwise one copy of the report of the Penitentiary Investigating Committee now being printed.

In answer to Mr Durst, the SPEAKER said he presumed Mr Watkinds' report would be printed with the other documents.

The House then, on motion of Mr REED of Marion, reconsidered the vote by which it refused to concur in the Senate amendments to H. J. R. providing for the renting of State rooms.

The amendment was then concurred in by 38 to 8, several members, however, expressing regret that they were compelled either to concur or allow the rents to go on at the present exorbitant rate.

At 10 40 the House took a recess until 11 o'clock.

On the House resuming at the appointed hour, there was no quorum, and a call of the House was ordered.

The call was suspended.

H. B. [illegible]—For the relief of Jackson county, was reported from the Senate with a number of amendments in which the House refused to concur.

S. B. [illegible]—To repeal sections 4 and 5, title 1, chapter 11 of the miscellaneous laws relating to notices of elections, went through two readings and was thrown out on the third. Yeas 23, nays [illegible].

An effort was made for the third time to take up S. B. 71, providing for certain amendments in the Code relative to practice, but the House refused to suspend the rules.

On motion of Mr BROWN the House concurred in the S. J. R. for a joint committee to wait upon the Governor, and Messrs Brown and Bradshaw were appointed on the part of the House.

Mr BRADSHAW introduced the following resolution:

Resolved, That the thanks of the members of this House be and the same are hereby tendered to the Hon J. C. Drain, Speaker of the House, for the uniformly courteous, able, impartial and prompt manner in which he has discharged his arduous duties as Speaker of this House.

Mr GALLOWAY moved to adopt, and the resolution was passed by acclamation.

The Senate amendments to H. B. 120—fixing the salaries of County Assessors—were concurred in, and the House then agreed to pay the Insane Committee $5 each for their services.

S. B. 80—amending the liquor license laws—went through the usual readings and was passed by 46 to 5, the noes being Blake, Doak, [illegible], Hays and Jackson.

S. B. 90—For the delivery of the laws and reports of the Supreme Court to the National Courts of the Ninth Circuit, was, after the usual readings, passed without dissent.

Mr CHAMBERS offered a joint resolution to establish the orthography of the word Willamette in all public documents and records. The word to be spelled as telegraphed. Passed by 43 to 7.

Mr BRADSHAW made a verbal report from the Joint Committee appointed to wait upon the Governor, stating that his Excellency had no messages to communicate, but that he congratulated both Houses on the success of their legislation.

Mr GEARIN made another attempt to bring up S. B. 71, to amend the code of civil procedure, and was again unsuccessful, his motion to suspend the rules failing to obtain the requisite Constitutional majority.

S. B. 115—For the appointment of a Board of Immigration Commissioners without salary or other compensation, went through the usual readings, and was passed without dissent.

S. B. 91—to regulate enclosures, was rejected.

At 1 A. M. the House, at the earnest solicitation of Mr REED of Marion, refused to take a recess, and considered H. B. 121, providing for private executions, and passed the same after the usual readings by a vote of 42 to 7.

A bundle of messages then came in from the Senate, and the Clerk was about to read the same, when Mr BRADSHAW arose and said the House was under no obligations to the Senate. They had been disposing of Senate business all day, while the Senate had been treating the House with perfect contempt, taking no notice of the House bills.

Several motions were then made for a recess, but were either withdrawn or voted down, and the Senate business was proceeded with.

A motion to concur in Senate memorial relating to public lands was laid on the table.

Mr CRANSTON obtained the passage of a House memorial to make the northern boundary line of Oregon conform to the constitution of the State.

Mr GALLOWAY offered a resolution to allow Gilbert C. Reynolds, contestant from Grant county, $40 with which to pay his way home. Laid on the table.

Mr GILBERT offered a resolution, which [passed], thanking the reporters for the correct manner in which they had reported the proceedings of the House for their respective journals.

Mr CHAMBERS offered a resolution which passed thanking the officers for their promptitude and courtesy.

On motion of Mr MAYS, thanks were also tendered to the pastors of Salem for their ministrations in the House.

Thanks were then distributed ad libitum, pending the arrival of 2 o'clock, and the members went on to amuse themselves for a few minutes, making all sorts of motions, parliamentary and unparliamentary.

At 2 A. M. the SPEAKER, in a few well timed remarks, declared the House adjourned sine die, and the members separated after having been in [legislat]ive session thirty five days.

Yamhill claims to have had a genuine case of Asiatic cholera.

No less than thirty sail vessels were in Astoria harbor last Sunday.

The Circuit Court for Marion county will have a large docket at the next term.

Letters are detained in the Oregon City Post office for want of postage, addressed to M Shields Sandy and S P Ingram of Hillsboro.

The mammoth brick kiln of the season at the penitentiary Salem was started to burn on Thursday this week. It contained 900 000 bricks.

The following officers were elected at the M E Sabbath School in Albany last Sunday. Superintendent W B Blain. Chorister H C Clement. Organists Misses Lizzie Westlake and Ronda Alexander.

The ministers of the several churches in Salem have published a card of thanks to the President of the California and Oregon Railroad Company for his action in stopping the trains on his road on the Sabbath day.

Mr. John Hobson and others who have just arrived from Iowa and made a beginning in the Nehalem valley, will be the means of bringing many more people to this part of Oregon. They are delighted with their prospects.

Leonard Thomas of the Waldo Hills had the misfortune to lose his barn by fire on Thursday evening last week and what makes it worse to bear everything goes to show that it was the work of an incendiary. The family were absent at the time attending the Fair and Mr Thomas was alone on the place.

The Oregon City Enterprise says Samuel J Tracy was arrested last night on a warrant issued by Mayor McCown on a charge of assault on W L Burns and son with a dangerous weapon—a club. An examination was had on Monday and Tracy was bound over to appear before the next grand jury in the sum of $200.

Mr Jonathan Liggs of Salem who was slightly injured a few weeks since by his horses running away, met with another accident last Monday while hauling wood beyond the depot. In making a turn with his wagon on sliding ground he was thrown out and severely injured internally. Mr. Liggs is seventy two years of age and it is feared that this last accident will prove fatal.

Thomas Haines Jack Adams John Hobson and George Fogleson left Mishawaka on the 12th with two teams of cattle and sledges for Astoria. They worked on the road through, reaching here Saturday evening at 8 o'clock and returned on Monday each sled freighted with about 1 200 pounds of furniture provisions etc for the new settlers on the Nehalem. There is now a road through to Mishawaka from this place.

The Albany Democrat says. The wheat crop for this year is nearly all stored and in Linn county makes quite a formidable show. We have for some time been collecting information in regard to the amount raised in this county, and though we still have two or three storing places to hear from, we have learned enough to know that our farmers have raised the enormous amount of one million and a half bushels. Where is the county that can beat this record? As soon as we hear from the other places of storing we will give the amount received at each place.

Local money matters remain in statu quo with rather a tendency to greater conservatism on the part of lenders, who foresee the immense demand likely to prevail during the latter part of the fall for funds to complete the movement of the grain crop [illegible] in our home market, however have not [illegible] and regular customers at bank [illegible] as yet without serious difficulty, but we would not be astonished should the market [illegible] much closer than any one anticipated a few [illegible] ago.

The volume of trade in our city is quite encouraging to merchants but is not excessive. To day has witnessed but few transactions of importance if we except in which the activity continues unabated wheat being quotable firm at our last figures and flour a little disposed to weaken especially rates for large lots. Wheat is coming forward quite rapidly and buyers here assure us that they are offered more than they care about taking immediately. There is apparently no doubt about the full supply of tonnage for all the grain the farmers will sell this year unless an advance should take place for we have it from reliable authority that a great many farmers who are in a financial condition to do so have fully made up their minds to hold their grain until next season. While some of the probabilities favor this policy, others are against it. Among the former is the fact that the season for early sowing in England and in some sections on the continent, has not been favorable for next crop but this is not entitled to great weight so early in the season not so much as the presumption that one good crop like that of this year is not likely to be followed by another. Again the low prices prevalent for wheat will tend in some measure to discourage an increase of the acreage and turn attention to other products. So that it might reasonably be supposed that this cereal will not be as extensively raised as last year. But among the possibilities which will affect the market next year unfavorably for those who carry their wheat over is that that a much larger quantity will be left on hand at the close of this year than was last owing to the low prices and heavy yield, so that added to fair crops in the harvest of 1875 the actual amount would still be above the demand and thus prices would be kept down. There are indeed so many events yet to happen that will modify rates next year that it would be premature to form any decisive opinion upon the subject.

Shipping Intelligence.

The bark Lomair under charter to load wheat for Europe put in appearance late this evening.

The Elizabeth Dougall under charter to a Chinese firm to carry flour miscellaneous freight and passengers to Hongkong fills up slowly.

The bark Arbutus will carry a lot of Lebanon mills flour to Liverpool—the first we believe of that brand shipped thither.

The bark Sarah Scott began loading this week and with nearly a full cargo dropped down the river this afternoon.

Two more vessels of the grain fleet—the Agra and the Jas Wishart—are reported in the river.

The ship Dovenby loaded by Messrs Savier & Co principally with one of the best brands of flour in the world will be ready to vacate her berth at Flanders dock about the middle of next week.

The bark Lauretta is being fitted up quite rapidly and has the chance of receiving the quickest dispatch of any vessel of the season so far.
